The Management Quiz not only provided a platform for students to showcase their academic knowledge but also encouraged them to think analytically and respond under time-bound conditions. It created a spirit of healthy competition among the participants while promoting teamwork and leadership qualities. Such activities are instrumental in bridging classroom learning with practical application, thereby preparing students for real-world challenges in the corporate environment.

The event was well-received, and the students actively participated, making it an engaging and fruitful academic exercise.

The Department extends its gratitude to the coordinators, faculty members, and all participants for contributing to the success of the event.
